CORRESPONDENCE.

(We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of correspondents. Our columns are open to every shade of opinion or party or grievance. Correspondence must not be libelous or indecent and must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.)

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:

For the benefit of the W. C. T. U. we quote the following sermon of the Rev. Solomon Schindler, the anti-fanatic preacher of Boston. "Your circular note of Mar. 15, comes to hand, and in reply I would say that it would be a waste of space in your valuable paper, should I reiterate at some length what I have publicly said before now in regard to the standpoint I have taken toward the prohibitory amendment.

I shall vote no, no, no. Prohibition is an infringement upon personal rights not privileges. Prohibition does not prohibit. Prohibition drives the traffic into kitchens, cellars and garrets, where the law cannot reach an offender. Prohibition breeds hypocrites. Prohibition makes criminals of in-offensive people. Prohibition is a curse, and not a blessing; it fosters intemperance instead of putting it down.

Let the sale of a commodity which, by its intemperate use only becomes harmful, be entrusted to none but responsible people; let it be regulated in the best possible manner, but do not make a crime of what is no crime; do not deprive ninety-nine persons of a legitimate right because one sots abuses it."

Yours respectfully,

SOLOMON SCHINDLER.

To prove legal prohibition a necessity, is to prove that the Bible is not a sufficient rule of faith and practice. To prove the making, drinking and distribution of wine wrong, is it to prove that Jesus Christ was immoral. How much like the mock trial the Jews gave Jesus, is the mock philanthropy of the W. C. T. U. There is altogether too much narrow fanatical spite, running between the lines of the articles of the W. C. T. U. to be the acts of true christians. It rather looks like the vaporings of a few narrow minded meddling though perhaps well meaning old women who always should remember in ecclesiam mulier taceat. Good mothers never prattle and gossip about the affairs of others. If the Rev. John Wesley was ever guilty of the twaddle quoted by the W. C. T. U., he must have framed it after making a breakfast of fat pork and cucumbers. Therefore, it is hardly fair to hold him strictly responsible for his meanderings. ORA E SEMPRE.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:

E. B. Lee, a native of New York, late of San Francisco, has taken the oath of allegiance to the Republic of Hawaii. New York and California papers please copy. Yours respectfully, E.

The Rose and the Thorn.

She was no longer a rosebud. Indeed, she was in full bloom, and had been so through several seasons. But she had money, and he loved her. How often men do that way.

So as time wore on and she grew no younger his heart throbbed more and more, until he stilled its throbbing by proposing to her. He was so sure of her, at her time of life, that anything but a prompt acceptance never occurred to him.

What was his intense, nay, painful surprise, then, to hear her say she was very much obliged to him for his kindness, but really she must decline.

"Oh, why, why?" he pleaded in heart-broken tones. "Because I do not love you," she answered.

"But you can learn to love me," he said coaxingly.

"I think not," she persisted.

"Oh, yes, you can," he exclaimed, grabbing at her lily white hand.

"One is never too old to learn, you know."

How he never escaped alive it is no part of the chronicler's business to explain.—Exchange.

DESCRIPTION AND TERMS:

"CREOLE" is the gamest, fastest and best bred stallion that has ever been imported into the Hawaiian Islands. He reduced his record of 2:20 to 2:15 in Petaluma, Cal., August 24, 1894, distancing his whole field in the first heat; then again to 2:15 in Stockton, Cal., September 23, 1894, winning the first heat in 2:15, fourth heat in 2:15, and fifth heat in 2:19, proving that he is a remarkably game as well as a speedy race horse. ("Creole by Prompter out of Grace by Buccaneer shows that he is capable of getting a mark of 2:10, and is one of the gamest stallions seen this year, and besides being game, is one of the best formed and remarkably intelligent."—Breeder and Sportsman, Sept. 25, 1894.) He is 15½ hands high and of powerful build throughout. His color is glossy black with one white hind foot. His disposition is all that could be desired and his action superb. He is a sure foal getter.
